RE: Cambridge University Press v. Becker, Nos. 12-14676,
12-15147 (11th Cir.)

Dear Mr. Ley:

The Court has before it a pending motion by the United States for an extension of time to file an amicus brief in this case. The motion was filed in order to afford sufficient time for the Solicitor General to determine whether the government's participation as an amicus curiae in this appeal was warranted. We are now writing to inform the Court that the United States will not be filing an amicus brief in this case. The pending motion is therefore moot and may be dispensed with accordingly.

Sincerely,

Daniel Tenny
Attorney for the United States
